

ROME FILM FEST

OCTOBER 16/27 2024

ROME FILM FEST

16|27 October 2024

Geppi Cucciari returns to the stage of the Rome Film Fest: for the third consecutive year the author and host will be the godmother of the closing ceremony

Geppi Cucciari will return to the stage of the Rome Film Fest: for the third consecutive year, the author and host will be the godmother of the closing ceremony that will be held tomorrow, Saturday October 26th at 5 pm in Sala Petrassi of the Auditorium Parco della Musica Ennio Morricone.

Across her twenty-year career, Geppi Cucciari has proven to be one of the most brilliant and multi-talented women in show business in Italy, who moves easily between cinema, television, radio and theatre. She made her debut on Zelig in 2001 and in 2002 began to work in theatre as well, where she wrote and starred in various shows. She played the role of Morticia in the musical The Addams Family and since 2017 has been on tour with the “Perfetta” monologue, written and directed by Mattia Torre.

Since Zelig Circus (2005-2009), she has hosted many programmes on television, including Italia's Got Talent (Channel 5), G'Day (La7) and for Rai television: Per un pugno di libri, Rai Pipol, Che Succ3de?, and the most recent finals of the Premio Strega book award. Since 2015, with Giorgio Lauro, she has hosted the radio programme Un giorno da Pecora on Radio Rai 1.

She has acted in the sitcom Belli Dentro and been in the cast of films such as Grande, grosso e Verdone (2008) by Carlo Verdone, L'arbitro (2013) by Paolo Zucca, Un fidanzato per mia moglie (2014) by Davide Marengo, Passione Sinistra (2013) by Marco Ponti, Una donna per amica (2014) by Giovanni Veronesi, Gli Addestratori by Andrea Jublin, Romeo è Giulietta by Giovanni Veronesi and Diamanti by Ferzan Ozpetek.

For several years she has hosted the nomination ceremony for the David di Donatello awards at the Quirinale. She is currently on television in the third season of Splendida Cornice for which she is the author and host.